Madrid, 1957.

Daniel, young, wealthy and unsure of his place in the world, views the city through the lens of his camera.

Ana, a hotel maid whose family is suffering under the fascist dictatorship of General Franco.

Lives and hearts collide as they unite to uncover the hidden darkness within the city.

A darkness that could engulf them all . . .

Master storyteller Ruta Sepetys once again shines light into one of history's darkest corners in this epic, heart-wrenching novel about identity, unforgettable love and the hidden violence of silence.

Emma's Review

I found this book simply amazing, it is well worth the read. one of my favourite characters was senora Matheson because she would never give up no matter what! As well as Ana because she was so strong and so inspirational even though she had a lot of bad stuff going on in her life she still does her best! Even when she got fired. it is very historical. if i was reading that for another moment i would jump into their life and live through their experiences. Daniel was such a good character too, he loved his camera (and Ana) and the history of Spain in others eyes and his. I really recommend this book if you love history. I rate this book a 6 out of 5!
