

Murder Most Unladylike

Robin Stevens

Reviewed by: Ella

Blurb

At Deepdean School for Girls, Daisy Wells and Hazel Wong have set up their own detective agency. But they are struggling to find any real crimes to investigate. (Unless you count the case of Lavinia's missing tie. Which they don't.)

Then Hazel discovers the Science Mistress, Miss Bell, lying dead in the Gym. To add to the mystery, when she and Daisy return five minutes later, the body has disappeared. Now Hazel and Daisy not only have a murder to solve: they have to prove one happened in the first place.

Determined to get to the bottom of the crime before the killer strikes again Hazel and Daisy must hunt for evidence, spy on their suspects and use all the cunning and intuition they can muster. But will they succeed? And can their friendship stand the test?

Ella's Review

I was first recommended this book by one of the workers in a local book shop and I decided to invest in the first book of the gripping series and see how I liked it! I am obsessed with this mystery! All of the twists in this book add to the excitement and the temptation to skip and reveal all of the secrets hidden in this adventure is irresistible (apart from I wouldn't want to miss a page)! I love both the girls' personalities and the great blend of crime novel and boarding school drama.

I will definitely be continuing this book series!

