What did you have to do for this activity?

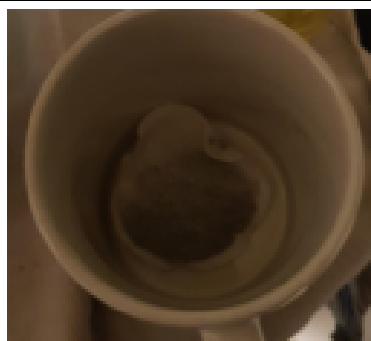

Me and my mum threw tea bags into a mug and see who could it the furthest. We used rope on the floor to show

Would you recommend this activity to anyone? Why?

I would recommend this because it was a fun competitive game to play

This Year 9 student has done a great job making fat balls and feeding the birds!

What did you have to do for this activity?

To complete this enrichment task, you had to take a walk down the canal and make a note/take photos of the birds you spot along the way. There were many duck and swan families swimming on the sunshine. I saw a coot and lots of seagulls as well.

Did anyone help you or take part?

This was a task my whole family enjoyed, we often take the dog down the canal, it is one of his favourite walks. It is bursting with life at this time of year.

How did this activity make you feel?

It was nice to be out, as I had not been feeling well, the canal is especially good to walk as it's so flat and straight. I was frustrated not to see a kingfisher as I was looking out for one.

Would you recommend this activity to anyone? Why?

I would recommend this task to anyone who likes nature and enjoys walking. The bird spotting makes it a bit of a challenge.

Has this activity inspired you to try something else relating to it?

I will continue to try to spot the birds which I didn't see – a kingfisher and the grebe. I would also like to look for birds of prey in the countryside.
