BAE SYSTEMS

Are you the Future Apprentice of the Year Celebrating Neurodiverse Talent?

We're searching schools, colleges, and sixth forms across the UK to find the next Future Apprentice of the Year Celebrating Neurodiverse Talent.

This award recognises ambitious, creative students who think differently and make things happen. It's all about showcasing the ideas, innovation, and determination that neurodiverse young people bring to the future of work.

If you identify as neurodiverse and are inspired by BAE's commitment to inclusion and innovation, this is your moment to shine.

To enter, you must:

- Identify as Neurodiverse
- Be a UK resident
- Have a minimum of 5 GCSE's at grade 9-4 (or equivalent), including Maths & English

Apply Now - It only takes 10 minutes!

- Win an experience day at one of BAE Systems' UK Offices
- You'll have the opportunity to have breakfast with a senior leader, hear more about the work BAE do to support their apprentices, alongside a tour of the site to understand the work done at BAE.
